

Hopkinsville Kentuckian.
PUBLISHED WEEKLY.
TUESDAY, MAY 16, 1914.

PERSONAL GOSPEL.

Mrs. Walter Fowkes, of Clarksville, is visiting Mrs. Mary Fowkes.
Mrs. Missa Galt, of Owensboro, is visiting relatives near the city.
Mrs. Cross, Wood, of Trenton, Ky., is visiting Mrs. Eugene Wood Saturday.
Mrs. C. S. Coleman, of Hartford, is on the city ship Saturday.
Mrs. W. R. Howell spent several days of last week visiting friends in Calif.

Mrs. F. W. DeWayne has returned from a short visit to relatives in Paducah, Tenn.
Mrs. L. Pass has returned from a trip to Dawson Springs somewhat improved in health.

Mr. Geo. P. Kumbarger and wife, of Springfield, Tenn., are visiting the family of Mr. G. V. Campbell, on East Street street.

Rev. S. N. Vail, Commissioner to the General Assembly at Saratoga, N. Y., is leaving tomorrow morning, accompanied by Mrs. Vail. After the adjournment of the Assembly they will visit relatives and friends in Washington and other places, and will be absent from the city for four or five weeks.

When you have a sick horse in it not better to have it attended to by a man fully qualified by education and experience, in preference to employing a gambler who has never been educated for the business and whose property must be jeopardized to the most successful manner of carrying out his game.

My ability can be tested by one of my friends, by sending you to the city of the Veterinary College, Toronto, Canada, one of the most renowned of its kind in the world.
Fattest's name at any address in Hopkinsville and vicinity, when called by telephone or otherwise.
My charges are reasonable and include all medicines furnished.
Horsemen given who require to leading language men to my respectability and standing.

Dr. S. A. Bandler, Veterinary Surgeon, John Ellis, Liver Stable, Hopkinsville, Ky.

Will be received up to 3 o'clock Saturday afternoon May 16th for building 1/2 mile of pike on Clarksville road. Specifications can be obtained by applying at the city of the city. The company reserves the right to reject any and all bids.

Secretary Hopkinsville, Nashville and Nashville Turnpike Road Co.
DEATHS.
Mrs. V. W. Finn, assistant plumber at the Asylum, died Sunday of typhoid fever, after an illness of two weeks. He was 26 years old and his remains were taken yesterday to his former home in Simpson county.

PARSONS—Mary Parrish, daughter of York Parrish, died in the city of York, on the 14th inst.

LONG—Albert Long, formerly of the city who had been making a home in St. Paul, Minn., for several years, died last Thursday.

MORAN—Alan Morgan, the two-year-old child of Peter Morgan and Mary Morgan, died in the city last Tuesday, of brain fever. Funeral services were held at the Virginia Street Baptist church by Rev. E. Williams.

COLORED.
PARSONS—Louis Parson, aged 11 years, died in the city of diphtheria last week.

LONG—Mary Parrish, daughter of York Parrish, died in the city of York, on the 14th inst.

LONG—Albert Long, formerly of the city who had been making a home in St. Paul, Minn., for several years, died last Thursday.

MORAN—Alan Morgan, the two-year-old child of Peter Morgan and Mary Morgan, died in the city last Tuesday, of brain fever. Funeral services were held at the Virginia Street Baptist church by Rev. E. Williams.

COLORED.
PARSONS—Louis Parson, aged 11 years, died in the city of diphtheria last week.

LONG—Mary Parrish, daughter of York Parrish, died in the city of York, on the 14th inst.

LONG—Albert Long, formerly of the city who had been making a home in St. Paul, Minn., for several years, died last Thursday.

MORAN—Alan Morgan, the two-year-old child of Peter Morgan and Mary Morgan, died in the city last Tuesday, of brain fever. Funeral services were held at the Virginia Street Baptist church by Rev. E. Williams.

COLORED.
PARSONS—Louis Parson, aged 11 years, died in the city of diphtheria last week.

LONG—Mary Parrish, daughter of York Parrish, died in the city of York, on the 14th inst.

LONG—Albert Long, formerly of the city who had been making a home in St. Paul, Minn., for several years, died last Thursday.

MORAN—Alan Morgan, the two-year-old child of Peter Morgan and Mary Morgan, died in the city last Tuesday, of brain fever. Funeral services were held at the Virginia Street Baptist church by Rev. E. Williams.

COLORED.
PARSONS—Louis Parson, aged 11 years, died in the city of diphtheria last week.

HERE AND THERE.

Jo-Ha for Rheumatism.

Early strabismus as a rule.
Pure fruit jar at Jas. Wallace's Circuit Court covered in Madisonville yesterday.

The 17 year locusts are already showing up in the Eastern States.

Crick & Danzing were refused a license to sell liquor at Huntington.

Ten articles of all kinds at Jas. T. Wallace's.

Our Vanilla and Lemon extracts are unsurpassed. Try them. L. L. Bous.

The Grand Convalescent of Knight Templar is in session at Paducah this week.

County Court in Calif. yesterday. The usual crowd from this city attended.

Low cream soda with pure fruit juice at Wallace's.

We experienced two days of blackberry winter last week, the mercury dropping about 10 degrees.

Saw our Hummers. L. L. Bous.

Hammocks of all descriptions at Wallace's.

The Christian County Medical Society meets at Dr. Blakey's office on next Monday (21st), at 10 a. m.

Misses Miller and Becker, of Henderson, had a scrap last week and were out of the city.

Mr. A. S. Davis' store was filled with new goods.

Robert Carter, a young Warren county farmer, has been arrested on charges of murdering his wife.

A special meeting of Democratic Club will be held Friday night at the usual time and full attendance of the membership is earnestly desired.

Wholesale buyers at Milwaukee, Wis., are in the city.

It was the Milwaukee Mower that attracted the attention of the Chicago Hill Grange.

WANTED—By one for a client $1000 on Real Estate work double the amount. Will pay night or interest in advance.

The Milwaukee Band and Mow are simpler in construction and more in action than any other machines on the market.

Mr. H. M. Gray was arrested by Chief Friday Saturday a charge of passing a government officer to obtain money. He was sent to Louisville to serve before the Commissioner.

Two good work and durability the Milwaukee Band and Mow are as far ahead of other machines as the most superior is ahead of the old-fashioned "ground hog" machine.

Another grand convention rally took place at the Tabernacle Sunday night.

Some educated folks, who were out of the progress of the world, say the old style horse-killing machine are good enough for us.

Some educated folks, who were out of the progress of the world, say the old style horse-killing machine are good enough for us.

Some educated folks, who were out of the progress of the world, say the old style horse-killing machine are good enough for us.

Some educated folks, who were out of the progress of the world, say the old style horse-killing machine are good enough for us.

Some educated folks, who were out of the progress of the world, say the old style horse-killing machine are good enough for us.

Some educated folks, who were out of the progress of the world, say the old style horse-killing machine are good enough for us.

Some educated folks, who were out of the progress of the world, say the old style horse-killing machine are good enough for us.

Some educated folks, who were out of the progress of the world, say the old style horse-killing machine are good enough for us.

Some educated folks, who were out of the progress of the world, say the old style horse-killing machine are good enough for us.

Some educated folks, who were out of the progress of the world, say the old style horse-killing machine are good enough for us.

Some educated folks, who were out of the progress of the world, say the old style horse-killing machine are good enough for us.

Some educated folks, who were out of the progress of the world, say the old style horse-killing machine are good enough for us.

Mrs. Jas. G. Dranshaw, who for 11 years has been one of the most efficient teachers in the Hopkinsville Public Schools, has been compelled to stop teaching by reason of failing health. Her physician prescribes absolute rest for the next few months, as her illness is a nervous disorder. Her daughter Miss Fawcett, who is teaching in the country, is endeavoring to arrange to close her school and take her mother's place for the next four weeks.

One of the most striking features of the Adams Express Show, that is attracting the attention of the press of this section of the country, is the extra fine lot of music which is given in connection with the show. These shows always have had fine music, but never before anything like this good lot is this. The most part of the program is a well worth the price of admission, many of the critics of the show say, and to those who are fond of good music a fine treat is promised when the show appears on Thursday next.

Mr. R. L. Boulware has bought the interest of the deceased partner of the firm of Cox Bros. and the business will in future be conducted by Cox & Boulware. The new firm to-day is making a special reduction in the prices they quote cannot fail to commend themselves to those who are in the clothing and shoe business. Mr. Boulware, the new member, a well known merchant, and a popular gentleman who enjoys a wide acquaintance, and whose addition to the firm will add much to its increasing popularity.

"The current number of the Popular Educator, which is an excellent article written and illustrated by Miss Lillian E. Bush of Bath Creek, Kentucky, who will be remembered by many of our citizens as a former excellent and satisfactory teacher in the Hopkinsville Public Schools. Her many friends here will be delighted to learn of her eminent success in the Bath Creek schools. She has an exceptionally high reputation for efficiency. Miss Bush is an excellent artist and her good work in the school room has led to her being promoted to the High School Department. She has other schools going on for her.

From a private letter from Mrs. C. H. Nash, written May 11 from Dallas, Tex., she said the following: "Health Valley, Texas. Truly Edmunds and myself reached here on this, 6:30 last p. m., after a most delightful trip, which was free from dust. We are all well, fresh and happy. All dry up have delightful homes. Our three delegates were promptly put on the spot by Dr. W. W. Kennedy, who is a full delegation. Judge Harrison again elected President, others not named. Weather cool, clearly pleasant, and perfect. Good addresses of welcome, and well responded to by E. W. Mullin, of Baltimore.

Two good work and durability the Milwaukee Band and Mow are as far ahead of other machines as the most superior is ahead of the old-fashioned "ground hog" machine.

Another grand convention rally took place at the Tabernacle Sunday night.

Some educated folks, who were out of the progress of the world, say the old style horse-killing machine are good enough for us.

Some educated folks, who were out of the progress of the world, say the old style horse-killing machine are good enough for us.

Some educated folks, who were out of the progress of the world, say the old style horse-killing machine are good enough for us.

Some educated folks, who were out of the progress of the world, say the old style horse-killing machine are good enough for us.

Some educated folks, who were out of the progress of the world, say the old style horse-killing machine are good enough for us.

Some educated folks, who were out of the progress of the world, say the old style horse-killing machine are good enough for us.

Some educated folks, who were out of the progress of the world, say the old style horse-killing machine are good enough for us.

Some educated folks, who were out of the progress of the world, say the old style horse-killing machine are good enough for us.

Some educated folks, who were out of the progress of the world, say the old style horse-killing machine are good enough for us.

Some educated folks, who were out of the progress of the world, say the old style horse-killing machine are good enough for us.

Some educated folks, who were out of the progress of the world, say the old style horse-killing machine are good enough for us.

Some educated folks, who were out of the progress of the world, say the old style horse-killing machine are good enough for us.

Some educated folks, who were out of the progress of the world, say the old style horse-killing machine are good enough for us.

Some educated folks, who were out of the progress of the world, say the old style horse-killing machine are good enough for us.

Some educated folks, who were out of the progress of the world, say the old style horse-killing machine are good enough for us.

Some educated folks, who were out of the progress of the world, say the old style horse-killing machine are good enough for us.

Some educated folks, who were out of the progress of the world, say the old style horse-killing machine are good enough for us.

Some educated folks, who were out of the progress of the world, say the old style horse-killing machine are good enough for us.

Some educated folks, who were out of the progress of the world, say the old style horse-killing machine are good enough for us.

Some educated folks, who were out of the progress of the world, say the old style horse-killing machine are good enough for us.

Mr. Jas. G. Dranshaw, who for 11 years has been one of the most efficient teachers in the Hopkinsville Public Schools, has been compelled to stop teaching by reason of failing health. Her physician prescribes absolute rest for the next few months, as her illness is a nervous disorder. Her daughter Miss Fawcett, who is teaching in the country, is endeavoring to arrange to close her school and take her mother's place for the next four weeks.

One of the most striking features of the Adams Express Show, that is attracting the attention of the press of this section of the country, is the extra fine lot of music which is given in connection with the show. These shows always have had fine music, but never before anything like this good lot is this. The most part of the program is a well worth the price of admission, many of the critics of the show say, and to those who are fond of good music a fine treat is promised when the show appears on Thursday next.

Mr. R. L. Boulware has bought the interest of the deceased partner of the firm of Cox Bros. and the business will in future be conducted by Cox & Boulware. The new firm to-day is making a special reduction in the prices they quote cannot fail to commend themselves to those who are in the clothing and shoe business. Mr. Boulware, the new member, a well known merchant, and a popular gentleman who enjoys a wide acquaintance, and whose addition to the firm will add much to its increasing popularity.

"The current number of the Popular Educator, which is an excellent article written and illustrated by Miss Lillian E. Bush of Bath Creek, Kentucky, who will be remembered by many of our citizens as a former excellent and satisfactory teacher in the Hopkinsville Public Schools. Her many friends here will be delighted to learn of her eminent success in the Bath Creek schools. She has an exceptionally high reputation for efficiency. Miss Bush is an excellent artist and her good work in the school room has led to her being promoted to the High School Department. She has other schools going on for her.

From a private letter from Mrs. C. H. Nash, written May 11 from Dallas, Tex., she said the following: "Health Valley, Texas. Truly Edmunds and myself reached here on this, 6:30 last p. m., after a most delightful trip, which was free from dust. We are all well, fresh and happy. All dry up have delightful homes. Our three delegates were promptly put on the spot by Dr. W. W. Kennedy, who is a full delegation. Judge Harrison again elected President, others not named. Weather cool, clearly pleasant, and perfect. Good addresses of welcome, and well responded to by E. W. Mullin, of Baltimore.

Two good work and durability the Milwaukee Band and Mow are as far ahead of other machines as the most superior is ahead of the old-fashioned "ground hog" machine.

Another grand convention rally took place at the Tabernacle Sunday night.

Some educated folks, who were out of the progress of the world, say the old style horse-killing machine are good enough for us.

Some educated folks, who were out of the progress of the world, say the old style horse-killing machine are good enough for us.

Some educated folks, who were out of the progress of the world, say the old style horse-killing machine are good enough for us.

Some educated folks, who were out of the progress of the world, say the old style horse-killing machine are good enough for us.

Some educated folks, who were out of the progress of the world, say the old style horse-killing machine are good enough for us.

Some educated folks, who were out of the progress of the world, say the old style horse-killing machine are good enough for us.

Some educated folks, who were out of the progress of the world, say the old style horse-killing machine are good enough for us.

Some educated folks, who were out of the progress of the world, say the old style horse-killing machine are good enough for us.

Some educated folks, who were out of the progress of the world, say the old style horse-killing machine are good enough for us.

Some educated folks, who were out of the progress of the world, say the old style horse-killing machine are good enough for us.

Some educated folks, who were out of the progress of the world, say the old style horse-killing machine are good enough for us.

Some educated folks, who were out of the progress of the world, say the old style horse-killing machine are good enough for us.

Some educated folks, who were out of the progress of the world, say the old style horse-killing machine are good enough for us.

Some educated folks, who were out of the progress of the world, say the old style horse-killing machine are good enough for us.

Some educated folks, who were out of the progress of the world, say the old style horse-killing machine are good enough for us.

Some educated folks, who were out of the progress of the world, say the old style horse-killing machine are good enough for us.

Some educated folks, who were out of the progress of the world, say the old style horse-killing machine are good enough for us.

Some educated folks, who were out of the progress of the world, say the old style horse-killing machine are good enough for us.

Some educated folks, who were out of the progress of the world, say the old style horse-killing machine are good enough for us.

Some educated folks, who were out of the progress of the world, say the old style horse-killing machine are good enough for us.

Mr. Jas. G. Dranshaw, who for 11 years has been one of the most efficient teachers in the Hopkinsville Public Schools, has been compelled to stop teaching by reason of failing health. Her physician prescribes absolute rest for the next few months, as her illness is a nervous disorder. Her daughter Miss Fawcett, who is teaching in the country, is endeavoring to arrange to close her school and take her mother's place for the next four weeks.

One of the most striking features of the Adams Express Show, that is attracting the attention of the press of this section of the country, is the extra fine lot of music which is given in connection with the show. These shows always have had fine music, but never before anything like this good lot is this. The most part of the program is a well worth the price of admission, many of the critics of the show say, and to those who are fond of good music a fine treat is promised when the show appears on Thursday next.

Mr. R. L. Boulware has bought the interest of the deceased partner of the firm of Cox Bros. and the business will in future be conducted by Cox & Boulware. The new firm to-day is making a special reduction in the prices they quote cannot fail to commend themselves to those who are in the clothing and shoe business. Mr. Boulware, the new member, a well known merchant, and a popular gentleman who enjoys a wide acquaintance, and whose addition to the firm will add much to its increasing popularity.

"The current number of the Popular Educator, which is an excellent article written and illustrated by Miss Lillian E. Bush of Bath Creek, Kentucky, who will be remembered by many of our citizens as a former excellent and satisfactory teacher in the Hopkinsville Public Schools. Her many friends here will be delighted to learn of her eminent success in the Bath Creek schools. She has an exceptionally high reputation for efficiency. Miss Bush is an excellent artist and her good work in the school room has led to her being promoted to the High School Department. She has other schools going on for her.

From a private letter from Mrs. C. H. Nash, written May 11 from Dallas, Tex., she said the following: "Health Valley, Texas. Truly Edmunds and myself reached here on this, 6:30 last p. m., after a most delightful trip, which was free from dust. We are all well, fresh and happy. All dry up have delightful homes. Our three delegates were promptly put on the spot by Dr. W. W. Kennedy, who is a full delegation. Judge Harrison again elected President, others not named. Weather cool, clearly pleasant, and perfect. Good addresses of welcome, and well responded to by E. W. Mullin, of Baltimore.

Two good work and durability the Milwaukee Band and Mow are as far ahead of other machines as the most superior is ahead of the old-fashioned "ground hog" machine.

Another grand convention rally took place at the Tabernacle Sunday night.

Some educated folks, who were out of the progress of the world, say the old style horse-killing machine are good enough for us.

Some educated folks, who were out of the progress of the world, say the old style horse-killing machine are good enough for us.

Some educated folks, who were out of the progress of the world, say the old style horse-killing machine are good enough for us.

Some educated folks, who were out of the progress of the world, say the old style horse-killing machine are good enough for us.

Some educated folks, who were out of the progress of the world, say the old style horse-killing machine are good enough for us.

Some educated folks, who were out of the progress of the world, say the old style horse-killing machine are good enough for us.

Some educated folks, who were out of the progress of the world, say the old style horse-killing machine are good enough for us.

Some educated folks, who were out of the progress of the world, say the old style horse-killing machine are good enough for us.

Some educated folks, who were out of the progress of the world, say the old style horse-killing machine are good enough for us.

Some educated folks, who were out of the progress of the world, say the old style horse-killing machine are good enough for us.

Some educated folks, who were out of the progress of the world, say the old style horse-killing machine are good enough for us.

Some educated folks, who were out of the progress of the world, say the old style horse-killing machine are good enough for us.

Some educated folks, who were out of the progress of the world, say the old style horse-killing machine are good enough for us.

Some educated folks, who were out of the progress of the world, say the old style horse-killing machine are good enough for us.

Some educated folks, who were out of the progress of the world, say the old style horse-killing machine are good enough for us.

Some educated folks, who were out of the progress of the world, say the old style horse-killing machine are good enough for us.

Some educated folks, who were out of the progress of the world, say the old style horse-killing machine are good enough for us.

Some educated folks, who were out of the progress of the world, say the old style horse-killing machine are good enough for us.

Some educated folks, who were out of the progress of the world, say the old style horse-killing machine are good enough for us.

Some educated folks, who were out of the progress of the world, say the old style horse-killing machine are good enough for us.

Mr. Jas. G. Dranshaw, who for 11 years has been one of the most efficient teachers in the Hopkinsville Public Schools, has been compelled to stop teaching by reason of failing health. Her physician prescribes absolute rest for the next few months, as her illness is a nervous disorder. Her daughter Miss Fawcett, who is teaching in the country, is endeavoring to arrange to close her school and take her mother's place for the next four weeks.

One of the most striking features of the Adams Express Show, that is attracting the attention of the press of this section of the country, is the extra fine lot of music which is given in connection with the show. These shows always have had fine music, but never before anything like this good lot is this. The most part of the program is a well worth the price of admission, many of the critics of the show say, and to those who are fond of good music a fine treat is promised when the show appears on Thursday next.

Mr. R. L. Boulware has bought the interest of the deceased partner of the firm of Cox Bros. and the business will in future be conducted by Cox & Boulware. The new firm to-day is making a special reduction in the prices they quote cannot fail to commend themselves to those who are in the clothing and shoe business. Mr. Boulware, the new member, a well known merchant, and a popular gentleman who enjoys a wide acquaintance, and whose addition to the firm will add much to its increasing popularity.

"The current number of the Popular Educator, which is an excellent article written and illustrated by Miss Lillian E. Bush of Bath Creek, Kentucky, who will be remembered by many of our citizens as a former excellent and satisfactory teacher in the Hopkinsville Public Schools. Her many friends here will be delighted to learn of her eminent success in the Bath Creek schools. She has an exceptionally high reputation for efficiency. Miss Bush is an excellent artist and her good work in the school room has led to her being promoted to the High School Department. She has other schools going on for her.

From a private letter from Mrs. C. H. Nash, written May 11 from Dallas, Tex., she said the following: "Health Valley, Texas. Truly Edmunds and myself reached here on this, 6:30 last p. m., after a most delightful trip, which was free from dust. We are all well, fresh and happy. All dry up have delightful homes. Our three delegates were promptly put on the spot by Dr. W. W. Kennedy, who is a full delegation. Judge Harrison again elected President, others not named. Weather cool, clearly pleasant, and perfect. Good addresses of welcome, and well responded to by E. W. Mullin, of Baltimore.

Two good work and durability the Milwaukee Band and Mow are as far ahead of other machines as the most superior is ahead of the old-fashioned "ground hog" machine.

Another grand convention rally took place at the Tabernacle Sunday night.

Some educated folks, who were out of the progress of the world, say the old style horse-killing machine are good enough for us.

Some educated folks, who were out of the progress of the world, say the old style horse-killing machine are good enough for us.

Some educated folks, who were out of the progress of the world, say the old style horse-killing machine are good enough for us.

Some educated folks, who were out of the progress of the world, say the old style horse-killing machine are good enough for us.

Some educated folks, who were out of the progress of the world, say the old style horse-killing machine are good enough for us.

Some educated folks, who were out of the progress of the world, say the old style horse-killing machine are good enough for us.

Some educated folks, who were out of the progress of the world, say the old style horse-killing machine are good enough for us.

Some educated folks, who were out of the progress of the world, say the old style horse-killing machine are good enough for us.

Some educated folks, who were out of the progress of the world, say the old style horse-killing machine are good enough for us.

Some educated folks, who were out of the progress of the world, say the old style horse-killing machine are good enough for us.

Some educated folks, who were out of the progress of the world, say the old style horse-killing machine are good enough for us.

Some educated folks, who were out of the progress of the world, say the old style horse-killing machine are good enough for us.

Some educated folks, who were out of the progress of the world, say the old style horse-killing machine are good enough for us.

Some educated folks, who were out of the progress of the world, say the old style horse-killing machine are good enough for us.

Some educated folks, who were out of the progress of the world, say the old style horse-killing machine are good enough for us.

Some educated folks, who were out of the progress of the world, say the old style horse-killing machine are good enough for us.

Some educated folks, who were out of the progress of the world, say the old style horse-killing machine are good enough for us.

Some educated folks, who were out of the progress of the world, say the old style horse-killing machine are good enough for us.

Some educated folks, who were out of the progress of the world, say the old style horse-killing machine are good enough for us.

Some educated folks, who were out of the progress of the world, say the old style horse-killing machine are good enough for us.

Mr. Jas. G. Dranshaw, who for 11 years has been one of the most efficient teachers in the Hopkinsville Public Schools, has been compelled to stop teaching by reason of failing health. Her physician prescribes absolute rest for the next few months, as her illness is a nervous disorder. Her daughter Miss Fawcett, who is teaching in the country, is endeavoring to arrange to close her school and take her mother's place for the next four weeks.

One of the most striking features of the Adams Express Show, that is attracting the attention of the press of this section of the country, is the extra fine lot of music which is given in connection with the show. These shows always have had fine music, but never before anything like this good lot is this. The most part of the program is a well worth the price of admission, many of the critics of the show say, and to those who are fond

